

NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Useful information regarding the application for free access to the labour market in the Republic of Serbia

The National Employment Service, as the public employment service of the Republic of Serbia, performs employment activities and provides services to jobseekers and employers. If you opt for employment assistance by the Public Employment Service of the Republic of Serbia, by registering on the website of the National Employment Service <https://www.nsz.gov.rs/employee>, you will have the following options:

- personalized registration in your native language;
- obtaining information about a large number of vacancies in the territory of the entire Republic of Serbia;
- being noticed and contacted by a large number of employers;
- performing detailed searches of vacant positions, according to all relevant criteria;
- obtaining information on vacancies advertised by employers in branches of the National Service;
- obtaining useful advice on the subject of job search and presentation to the employer (writing a work resume and conducting interview with the employer);
- obtaining information about all other activities of the National Service;
- acquiring statistical indicators on supply and demand on the labour market in the Republic of Serbia;
- gaining access to the database of current legal regulations related to the labour market.

Your personal data will have full protection against data misuse.

All services of the National Employment Service are free of charge.

For all additional information and support in looking for a job, you can contact the National Employment Service via email: openbalkan@nsz.gov.rs